J. G. Moore, general freight and passenger agent for South Mississippi for the I'linois Central Railroad Company, with headquarters at Hattiesburg was a visitor to Bay St. tiesburg, was a visitor to Bay St. Louis Monday afternoon, on official mission.

Mr. Moore says the I. C. Road management will take charge of the new purchase, G. & S. I. R. R., about the middle of April. By that time every phase of the business will be in action by the I. C. and work of developing this section and entire southern portion of the State to be served by the new owners would be Edwards Bros., Local Ford Dealers, in active operation

The department over the I. C.'s new line display opens Monday and continues coming to the Gulr Coast. He is one of the army of workers already working for the company's success over the new route and to the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Mr. Moore says the new all-steel passenger train, direct from Chicago to Gulfport, known as the "Mississippian," has proven an unqualified success. | "Last Saturday," he said. "the 'Mississippian' brought sixty. two tourists from the North to the Gulf Coast, and this morning quite a number, and this in face of the fact the winter tourist business is beginning to wane."

The Illinois Central began advertising the Mississippi Gulf the moment it negotiated for the purchase of the Gulf-and Shin Island road, and while the business will not form lly be that of the I. C.'s until about the middle of April, yet the most intense activity to accelerate business is already in motion.

For next winter the Illinois Central will bring thousands of visitors to the Coast. Mr. Moore said, with the co-operation of the people here his line would bring untold numbers of visitors. By co-operation he meant we must have hotels, golf links and every attraction man can make possible in order to entertain and keep the visitor. Our water, our climate and scenery are wonderful to behold. We excel California and Florida in many ways, but we must compete with the comforts and other features man has made possible in the other States mentioned.

It must not be forgotten, President Markham, of the I. C., said to the Associated Press representative recently on the occasion of the purchase of the G. & S. I.: "In less than five years we will make a second Florida of the Mississippi Gulf Coast."

PLANS FOR HANCOCK

Representative of Edward Hines Land Sales Department Plans to Sell Farmers and Others Land and Live Stock for Breeding on Attractive Plan.

As a result of the Father and Son banquet recently held at Kiln, Hancock county, M. F. Beaudoin, land salesman for Edward Hines Yellow Pine Trustees, with headquarters at Chicago, announces to the people of Kiln and vicinity he is going to formulate plans for farmers and others who will farm actively whereby they will be able to obtain lands, purebred live stock and equipment on the deferred payment plan. There will be a meeting of farmers called at an early date for the purpose of organizing to graft laws and certain agreements, binding and yet beneficial to themselves. Such agreements to be submitted to Mr. Beaudoin for his approval. By this plan the farmers will make their own agreements to live up to and be under the supervision of Mr. Beaudoin. He will return to Kiln some time during the summer to look further into our land development problems. He also has a plan whereby the boys in the agricultural class can lease ground to farm on while in school and a chance to stay on the land when finished school and buy the land on time payments, or not keep t, as he sees fit.

A Profitable Business.

As a profitable business, and one which costs no extra expenditures, the specialist points out how from $2 to 6 could be cleared annually on each acre of land devoted to the business of growing these trees. "Where a man has as much as 100 acres of land on which he can grow trees, this means from $200 to $600 a year on a side, and it is the easiest made money on the farm.'

Speaking of the forestation work, Mr. Mattoon said: "Timber grows more rapidly in South Missisippithan in any other section of America and it is becoming more scarce and higher priced. An acre well set in pines, protected from fires, will grow on an average of from 300 to 800 board feet annually.

"It is a hard matter for the people of this section to realize the value in timber. When they are educated to the profit to be obtained therefrom and stock their lands they will have all kinds of opportunities to sell the products. There is a great future in growing pines.

We're always with you, Team.

The atmosphere was surcharged with that kind of spirit on Tuesday night last. We had journeyed out, to the L. & N. depot, the Mecca of hundreds. There we found a wildly hilarious crowd; every student of old Stanislaus was there; different classes were represented by banners whose legends bore hearty welcomes. Five boys, full of pep and ginger, masquerading as cannibals, were entertaining the throng, and created great amusement. When civilized they are: Baron, Martin, Lafosse, Banville and Gordon. Train No. 1 was coming and bearing the beloved Rock-a-Chaws homeward from the Chicago Tourney. When we saw the eagerness and gladness that brilliantly illuminated the countenance of every boy, when we heard the lusty shouts of welcome as the mighty train came to a halt, when we witnessed the demonstration of real affection in the handclasps that greeted each member of the team, Coach Commagere and Bio. Through the streets, with blare of bugle and flying banners, the students went on parade, anxious to show the universe that to them there was but one team in the world: The Rock-a-Chaws.

When finally the parading students and fans arrived at the College, everybody repaired to the gymnasium, where, with the team, headed by Coach Commagere, were seared upon the stage.

Mr. Commagere addressed the big crowd by first thanking everyone for the sincere demonstration of affection in their welcome; he then gave a brief account of the team's experience in Chicago, and, like the true sport that he is, added: "We mut and were defeated by a better team." Every member arose in turn and thanked the people who made the trip possible and for the hearty wel-

Governor Whitfield is expected to issue a proclamation within the next few days proclaiming April 27-May 3 as "State Forestry Week." The been caught." governor has just received a letter from W. M. Jardine, the new secretary of agriculture, calling his attention to this matter. The State observance of "Forestry Week" during which various interests are expected to give attention to the need for reforestation, etc., will coincide with the national period.

A prominent citizen of Bay St Louis remarked a few days since our greatest asset was sky and water. He had reference to our incomparable climate, of course, and was thinking of the millions of tourists that will soon be coming hitherward. But he failed to mention another chief essential to this scheme of thingsgood roads, hard surfaced streets for the city. We will get this if the voters turn out next Tuesday and vote.

President C H. Markham, of the Illinois Central, and St. Elmo Massengale, president of the Massengale Advertising Agency, of Atlanta, Ga. will be two of the principal speakers at the annual meeting of the Mississippi Press Association in Biloxi June 4-6. This was announced at Jackson, following a meeting of the executive committee, at which plans for the annual gathering were made Clayton Rand, of the Neshoba Democrat, at Philadelphia, Miss., was selected to reply to the local addresses welcome, and as gridinon luncheon of the country's greatest is Thomas D. Campbell. whose farm near Hardin, Mont., contains 35,000 acres, on which he raised and Aldermen City of bay St. Louis 280.000 bushels of wheat, besides large quantities of oats and ...

> He employs about 250 men, and uses the most modern methods in his farming operations. One of his fats is to out 15 tractors with gang plows abreast, whereby he plows a strip 150 feet wide at a time, plowing a square mile of land a day.

> Mr. Campbell has a very complete system of cost finding and account ing, to enable him to check up the results of his various crops in cold cash. He is a thorough business man, as well as a super-farmer, and regards farming as a manufacturing business, with seed, soil and rain as the raw materials.

> His attitude toward his labor is interesting. He secures the best men he can find and pays them we'l, never looking for "cheap" help. In addition to their regular pay, he gives them a bonus of the profits of his farm and makes them really partners, instead of merely "hands."

INDIANS INCREASE.

Many people who live in sections where there is no Indian population are under the impression that the red men are dying out, but this is by no means the case.

According to government reports, the Indian population in the United States reached its lowest point in 1887, when there were only 243,299. But since that time a steady increase has been noted, and in 1924 there were 346,962 identified with the various tribes, while some 60,000 more had given up their tribal affiliations and are now counted with the general population, making the total more than 400,000.

From these figures it may be seen that the original 100 per cent American is far from being extinct. In fact, it is believed that the number of Indians in the United States today is almost as great as at the time America was discovered in 1492.

It is true that those classed as Indians at present are not all fullblood, but the majority are and many of them have become highly civil-

Order Any Amendment You Want

HEY are trying to pass an amendment to keep children from working. Now children didn't want to work, but they got tired waiting for somebody else to do it. If they would just put through an amendment to MAKE grown people all work, there would be no need to have this children one. Grown people stopped working without an Amendment or even a reason so it will take more than an Amendment to start them. It will take a Miracle.

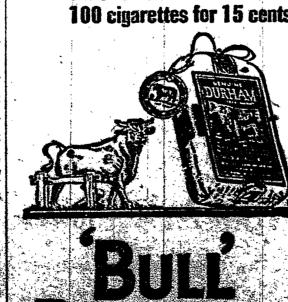

They are going to pass another Prohibition Amendment, somebody mislayed the rules of the other one. The 19th amendment made Women vote, some amendments make us do something and some keep us from it. No. 21 will give men with Knee Breeches the vote. About the 25th Amendment will prohibit smoking and when they do, 'Bull' Durham will boot's leg for a dollar a sack. (I knew I would get that Ad worked in there somewhere.)

BASS ENGRESSER(OR)

Our debators, the Misses Del Bondie and Straghan, returned from Jackson Tuesday evening. A pleas-ant trip is reported by them. Al-though they did not win in the State preliminaries, we are still very proud of them. We feel sure that the attempt has strengthened those who took part in it, and that they will be better qualified to win the debate at the Coastal Field Meet, April 11.

Your Creed.

I am a Mississippian. God willing, I will carve out the future with these two hands and this brain. I will stand on my feet and I will win success for myself and my own. If I should fail, or fall behind my rellows in the race of life, the fault and discredit will be mine, no other's. If I lose. I seek no alibi in the character of my environment; I harbor no class resentment; I carry no red flag of bitterness or sedition. I fight forward, whining not, independent, clear-eyed.
